Red Sox in the Community

The Boston Red Sox are committed to supporting and uplifting our communities across Red Sox Nation. We are proud to accomplish this through the work of the Red Sox Foundation, our Community Relations team, and our Social Impact team.

Red Sox Foundation: The Heart of Red Sox Nation

After taking ownership of the Red Sox in 2002, John Henry, Tom Werner, the late Larry Lucchino and their partners founded and funded the Red Sox Foundation as part of their philanthropic commitment and responsibility. From that day forward, the Foundation has been uniquely positioned to leverage the iconic brand of the Boston Red Sox and harness the passion of the greatest fans in baseball in order to make lasting impact in our communities.

Today, the Foundation is one of the largest team charities in Major League Baseball, strategically using its platform to be a leading source of hope and positivity off the field. It is the Foundation's mission to make a difference in the lives of youth, families, Veterans, and communities in need by improving health, educational and recreational opportunities. We are able to work towards this mission by coupling our year-round, direct-service programming with our grant-making initiatives and core partnerships. We utilize a unique model as a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization to effectively triple our impact in New England and Lee County, Florida. With the generosity of Red Sox Nation, our work has transformed and saved lives, resulting in a total investment of over $140 million since 2002.

Our unique model and incredible investment from Red Sox Nation has allowed us to support our communities in many key ways since our inception. First, the Red Sox Foundation has donated to over 2,700 mission-aligned organizations in New England and Southwest Florida since its creation in 2002. Second, through our partnerships with best-in-class organizations in health care, the Red Sox have helped raise over $190 million for cancer treatment and research for The Jimmy Fund, supported more than 50,000 veterans and their families suffering from the "invisible wounds of war" with the Home Base Program, and helped the Dimock Center serve 20,000 patients annually with health and human services. Third, the Foundation's self-run education and youth baseball and softball programs have supported 373 Boston Public School students with college scholarships and mentorships through its Red Sox Scholars program, awarded over 2,000 scholarships to graduating high school seniors in New England and Lee County, and provided access and opportunity for more than 1,500 youth annually to play baseball and softball through its Nike RBI program in Boston, Chelsea, and Lawrence.

The Red Sox became the first 2-time winner of the Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence. The club earned the inaugural award in 2010 for the Red Sox Scholars program, then won in 2019 for the Home Base program.

The Red Sox and the Jimmy Fund: Teammates for Life

No cause is more deeply rooted in the fiber of the Red Sox than the fight against cancer. It was that way when Ted Williams would visit the young patients of legendary doctor Sidney Farber on his way to Fenway Park in the 1940s, it is that way today, and it will remain that way until cancer has been vanquished.

The enduring partnership between the Red Sox and the Jimmy Fund, which officially started in 1953, has raised more than $190 million for cancer treatment and research. As the partnership's primary fundraising initiative, the annual Red Sox Jimmy Fund Radio-Telethon on WEEI and NESN has raised more than $77 million since the telethon's inception in 2002.

Over the years, the partnership between the Red Sox and the Jimmy Fund has been strengthened by countless interactions between players and patients, whether in the clinic's playroom, beside hospital beds, or in front of the Red Sox' dugout at Fenway Park. In 2003, Jimmy Fund teens visited Fenway South in Fort Myers, FL, in what became an annual trip that provided the children with a VIP weekend experience during spring training. During the COVID-19 pandemic, the Red Sox and the Jimmy Fund adapted to the unprecedented times, temporarily replacing in-person visits with virtual programming, including "Bingo Nights" with Red Sox players.

Ted Williams' final visit to the Jimmy Fund Clinic was in July 1999, just before MLB's All-Star Game at Fenway Park. Red Sox players have carried that torch in the 21st century, with Garrett Whitlock, Nate Eovaldi, Mitch Moreland, Brock Holt, Pablo Sandoval, Will Middlebrooks, David Ross, Jarrod Saltalamacchia, Daniel Bard, Tim Wakefield, and Clay Buchholz all serving as Jimmy Fund Captain during their time with the Red Sox. After the passing of Larry Lucchino in 2024, Brock Holt and NESN's Tom Caron assumed the role of Co-Chairs for the Jimmy Fund.

The Home Base Program

When the Red Sox went to Washington, D.C., in the aftermath of their World Series victories in 2004, 2007, 2013, and 2018, they did so at the invitation of the White House, Presidents Bush, Obama and Trump paying tribute to their success. The Sox appreciated the honor, but the trips to the nation's capital would take on a deeper and more lasting meaning, one inspired by their visits after each ceremony to the military personnel recovering from their wounds in the Walter Reed Army Medical Center and associated hospitals. Red Sox Foundation Chairman, Tom Werner, was so moved that he knew he needed to find a way that the ball club could make a positive impact on the lives of those who had given so much in service to their country. His vision inspired the club to partner with Massachusetts General Hospital to create the Home Base Program.

Along with the team's decades-long commitment to the Jimmy Fund, the Home Base Program has become a focal point of the team's community outreach, one that has provided an extraordinary support system to wounded veterans and their families.

The Home Base Program is the first partnership of its kind in the nation between an academic medical center and a Major League Baseball team. As a National Center of Excellence, Home Base operates the largest private-sector clinic in the nation devoted to healing invisible wounds such as post-traumatic stress disorder and traumatic brain injury. Since its inception, Home Base has served more than 50,000 veterans and family members with care and support and trained over 85,000 clinicians across the nation, and remains at the forefront of discovering new treatments. In September 2018, Home Base officially opened the doors to its new, state-of-the-art facility in the Charlestown Navy Yard. The center has doubled Home Base's capacity, providing the space and resources needed to significantly enhance the mental health care and support services provided to service members, Veterans, and their families.

The Red Sox Foundation to date has raised over $48 million for the program, with the majority raised through its annual Run to Home Base. The 16th Annual Run to Home Base presented by RTX returned to Fenway Park on July 26, 2025. Over 3,000 participants came together, both in-person and virtually, to raise critical funds for our Veterans, Service Members and their families. Later that day, the Boston Red Sox honored and paid tribute to Veteran and Service Member First Responders and their contributions as part of a special, on-field pregame ceremony.

The Red Sox and Dimock: Simply Saving Lives

In the heart of the city, at the soul of its core, sits an institution that tackles the toughest issues. With a mission to heal and uplift individuals and families, Dimock endeavors to redefine the model of a healthy community by creating equitable access to comprehensive health care and education. The Red Sox Foundation, a supporter for over 20 years, is one of the largest contributors to Dimock, which serves 20,000 patients annually with health and human services. John W. Henry—together with more than 200 Front Office employees, including our Baseball Operations Team, Aramark and other corporate sponsors—have personally volunteered at this Roxbury institution. We are proud to champion Dimock and the impact they've made in response to the pandemic to ensure individuals and families continue to have equitable access to critical services.

In 2025, the Red Sox Foundation made many generous contributions to meet the needs of people in our shared community. In addition to offering financial support, the Foundation participated in several volunteer projects, provided donated tickets to Dimock staff, and held lunches for their patients with the support of Takeda. The Foundation was also able to provide the Dimock Center with time on NESN Red Sox broadcasts to spread the word about the incredible work they are undertaking.

Red Sox Scholars: Expanding Access and Opportunity

The mission of our Red Sox Scholars program is to empower Boston's youth to pursue their goals to, through and beyond college by providing mentorship and access to academic, professional and social opportunities. The Red Sox Scholars, presented by Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center, is a college success program that awards a $10,000 college scholarship to 12 Boston Public School seventh graders each year. The Foundation then provides academic, professional, and social support to the students for the next nine years to ensure they graduate from college with as little debt as possible and are prepared to enter the workforce, as well as feeling part of a family of resources for years to come. Since the program's creation, the Foundation has engaged and empowered 373 students. The Foundation was proud to welcome its 23rd cohort to our Red Sox Scholars family in 2025.

Fenway Park Learning Lab: Creating a Tradition

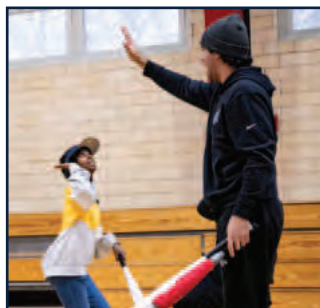

In 2023, the Red Sox Foundation, in partnership with the MassMutual Foundation and Fenway Park Tours, launched the Fenway Park Learning Lab, an immersive, educational tour for sixth grade Boston Public Schools (BPS) students, welcoming more than 4,500 students since its launch. The program, co-designed with BPS educators, leverages Fenway Park as a teaching tool bringing curriculum to life in areas including statistics, history, science, financial literacy and more. Inspired by John Henry's love of baseball and math, this dynamic program creates a rich tradition that makes our historic ballpark part of the educational journey for BPS students.

Youth Baseball and Softball Programs: Growing the Game

NIKE RBI (Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities): Our vision is for every young person in New England to have access and opportunity to play baseball and softball. As such, the Red Sox Foundation runs the Nike RBI and Jr. Nike RBI Leagues, which annually serve over 1,500 boys and girls, ages 5 to 18, in Boston, Chelsea, and Lawrence. Nike RBI provides team equipment, uniforms, field access and umpires at no cost to players and their families, and supports a cohort of dedicated coaches who use baseball and softball as a platform to teach core values of teamwork, respect and leadership.

PLAY BALL EVENTS: In collaboration with MLB, the Foundation's Play Ball Events introduce youth in underserved communities to the game in a fun, informal setting. In 2025, over 3,400 youth participated in Play Ball events in 23 communities across New England, including a Fantasy Day on-field clinic at Fenway Park with participants from Best Buddies, Special Olympics and our Nike RBI program.

SUPPORT FOR LITTLE LEAGUE & YOUTH PROGRAMS: The Red Sox Foundation has provided support to Little League and other youth programs across New England. In 2025, the Foundation supported 270 little leagues with funding.

Red Sox Players in the Community

Red Sox players and coaches support team community outreach through efforts such as community appearances, hospital visits, welcoming diverse pregame groups for batting practice at Fenway Park, and charitable campaigns throughout the season led by player families, just to name a few.

Lindos Sueños

Since 2004, the Red Sox have operated their Lindos Sueños Program, in which American teens traveled to the Dominican Republic to play baseball and engage in community service projects with their teenage counterparts from the island. More than 100 Boston-area teens have participated. It is a remarkable experience to see how quickly socioeconomic backgrounds and different languages give way to unity through the language and heart of baseball. The Lindos Sueños Program, which made its return in 2023, is sponsored by JetBlue. In 2024, the Lindos Sueños Program celebrated 20 years.

Changeup the Conversation

A new community outreach program launched in 2025 as a response to a growing need in our community—an issue stretching far beyond New England. Changeup the Conversation is a season-long initiative that highlights and amplifies the work of nonprofit organizations, advancing mental health and wellness access. Through special events at Fenway Park and an online campaign, the initiative aims to raise awareness, challenge stigma—especially for athletes—and create positive experiences for youth and fans.

Social Justice, Equity, and Inclusion

The Red Sox organization has a longstanding commitment to advancing racial and social justice, equity, and inclusion across its operations, its community partnerships, and its fan experience. This commitment is rooted in the belief that baseball and Fenway Park should be welcoming, accessible, and inclusive spaces for all.

Through ongoing relationship building with local community organizations, the Red Sox and Red Sox Foundation have worked to support initiatives that promote equity, opportunity, and belonging throughout New England. These partnerships reflect the organization's dedication to listening to and learning from the communities it serves while investing in causes that align with its values.

Internally, the organization has strengthened its focus on inclusion by launching Employee Resource Groups, expanding education and training for staff and players, and formalizing mentorship opportunities. Through these efforts, the Red Sox have also created spaces to speak honestly and forcefully to identify and condemn acts of hate, intolerance, and bias. These initiatives are designed to foster a culture where diverse perspectives are valued and where all employees feel supported and empowered.

This work is further reflected in the club's portfolio of Cultural and Identity celebrations at Fenway Park, which honor and uplift diverse communities while promoting inclusion for all fans.

The Red Sox and Red Sox Foundation remain committed to this ongoing work as part of their shared vision to build a more just and inclusive community.

Take the Lead

Take the Lead is a collaboration among New England's sports teams to stand up to racism and hate speech, and to provide diverse communities with access and opportunity to careers in sports. To emphasize their commitment to maintaining an inclusive and accepting environment in their venues, leaders from the Bruins, Celtics, Patriots, Red Sox, Revolution, and Fleet gathered to share information, practices, and ideas. With the leadership of state and city officials, the teams agreed to partner on an initiative that would help advance the dialogue on race and share community initiatives that help foster a diverse fan base and front office.

Red Sox Ownership and Executives

John W. Henry, Principal Owner

John W. Henry is in his 25th season as Principal Owner of the Boston Red Sox. Since becoming a steward of the franchise in 2002, the club has won a Major League-best four World Series Championships and claimed five American League East titles. In the 24 seasons from 2002-25, the Red Sox recorded the fourth-highest winning percentage in baseball (.546), notably setting a franchise record with 108 regular-season wins in 2018.

In addition to the club's on-field success, Mr. Henry and his partners have overseen the preservation and protection of Fenway Park, the oldest operating ballpark in Major League Baseball. Since 2002, the ownership group has invested over $450 million in improvements, ensuring the ballpark's viability for future generations.

Fulfilling a pledge to be active and engaged members of the Boston and New England community, Mr. Henry and his partners founded and funded the Red Sox Foundation. Since its creation in 2002, the Foundation has grown to become the largest team charity in Major League Baseball and one of the fastest growing in professional sports, earning the "Best Sports Charity" award in 2009 and the "Commissioner's Award for Philanthropic Excellence" in 2010 and 2019.

Mr. Henry takes an active role in league matters and currently serves as Chairman of Major League Baseball's Business Board. He is also an Ex Officio member of its Executive Council and is a member of the Committee on Economic Reform and the Investment Committee.

Prior to the purchase of the Red Sox, Mr. Henry was chairman and sole owner of the Florida Marlins from 1999 through 2001 and a limited partner of the New York Yankees from 1991 through 2003.

Mr. Henry's 37 years of experience in baseball ownership began in 1989 as chairman and majority owner of the Tucson Toros of the Triple-A Pacific Coast League. He was also one of the founders of the Senior Professional Baseball Association, a Florida winter league composed of retired major league players. He co-owned one of its teams, the West Palm Beach Tropics, for its sole season 1989-90. The team was managed by former Red Sox "Impossible Dream" manager, Dick Williams. Mr. Henry led recruiting and signing of players for the team, which had the league's season-best record of 52-20.

Mr. Henry is a founder and the principal owner of Fenway Sports Group (FSG), a global sports, marketing, media, entertainment, and real estate company anchored by the Boston Red Sox and Liverpool Football Club. He serves as the control person for all FSG sports clubs, including the Pittsburgh Penguins of the National Hockey League and as a Director of NASCAR's Roush Fenway Keselowski Racing, of which FSG owns a significant stake. Fenway Sports Group and Mr. Henry also own a controlling interest in Boston Common Golf, a tech-forward golf team representing Boston and New England, featuring PGA TOUR stars Rory McIlroy, Keegan Bradley, Adam Scott, Hideki Matsuyama, and Michael Thorbjornsen.

Mr. Henry is the Manager of Strategic Sports Group (SSG), a consortium of American sports team owners invested in PGA TOUR Enterprises, which controls all commercial activities related to the PGA TOUR. He serves on the Board of Directors of PGA TOUR Enterprises, which is a partnership between SSG and TOUR golfers overseeing commercial operations; and he also serves as a member of the Future Competition Committee, tasked with defining a new competitive model for the TOUR that enhances the TOUR's value to fans, players and partners.

Independent of Fenway Sports Group, Mr. Henry and partner Dave Kaemmer founded iRacing.com in 2004, a company that has grown to become the world's premier motorsport racing simulation portal used by both professional and amateur racers, offering more racing disciplines than any other online platform. The simulation features sanctioning of organized professional and amateur competitions in motorsport and is widely used by professional drivers, race tracks, manufacturers, and sanctioning bodies. Today, iRacing boasts more than 350,000 active paying subscribers and represents a robust global community of racing enthusiasts, featuring professional eSports competitions alongside the largest community-based racing competitions in the world.

Outside of his career in sports, Mr. Henry has extensive experience as a founder, manager, and investor. A pioneering trader of commodities futures, for more than 30 years Mr. Henry served as Chairman of the John W. Henry & Company, Inc., a global investment management firm he founded in 1981.

Mr. Henry has served on the Board of Directors of the Futures Industry Association (FIA), the National Association of Futures Trading Advisors, and the Managed Futures Trade Association. He was elected to the FIA's Futures Hall of Fame as a recognized leader in alternative asset financial product innovation.

In October of 2013, Mr. Henry purchased the Boston Globe, becoming the third owner of the largest newspaper in New England. A year later, he assumed the role of publisher, the newspaper's ninth in its history.

Mr. Henry has served as a board member of the Benson-Henry Institute for Mind Body Medicine at Massachusetts General Hospital and is a former Trustee of Massachusetts General Hospital, Boca Raton Community Hospital, and a former board member of the Library of Congress Trust Fund.

Mr. Henry received an honorary doctorate degree from Northeastern University and from Boston University. In 2024, he received the Golden Plate Award from the Academy of Achievement and is an Award Council member.

In 2026, he was announced as the recipient of the Sports Business Journal's annual Lifetime Achievement Award. Mr. Henry has also received the Charles Hamilton Houston Justice Award, the Master Entrepreneur of the Year Award in New England, and a lifetime achievement award from Alternative Investment News.

Born in Quincy, Illinois, Mr. Henry spent most of his childhood on the family farm in Forrest City, Arkansas, where his father raised soybeans, corn, and wheat. A Cardinals fan who grew up listening to Harry Caray, Jack Buck, and Joe Garagiola on the radio, Mr. Henry was nine when he saw his first Major League game at Sportsman's Park in St. Louis — the very city where he would see his own Boston Red Sox win the World Series in 2004.

Thomas C. Werner, Chairman

Tom Werner, who has been involved in Major League Baseball for more than 30 years and whose love for the Red Sox spans more than five decades, has played a vital role in the team's success on the field, the saving and restoration of Fenway Park, and its difference-making impact in the community.

Werner began his baseball career as leader of the ownership group that purchased the San Diego Padres in 1990, and served as the club's majority owner until December 22, 1994. He subsequently joined forces with John W. Henry and Larry Lucchino to acquire the Red Sox, the only bidders to make saving Fenway Park a cornerstone of their proposal. Together, they and their partners won the right to buy the team on December 20, 2001 and completed the purchase on February 27, 2002. Three years later, after substantial improvements to the ballpark, Werner, Henry, and Lucchino on March 23, 2005 pledged their long-term commitment to Fenway Park, inspiring major investment in the surrounding neighborhood and sparking a remarkable transformation. Because of their vision, Fenway Park in 2012 became the first ballpark to celebrate its 100th anniversary, and with over $400 million in renovations, its viability as "America's Most Beloved Ballpark" has been assured for years to come.

On the field, the Red Sox have enjoyed considerable success under Henry and Werner. Over their 24 years of ownership, the club has won a Major League-best four World Series Championships, claimed five American League East titles, and made 11 postseason appearances. From 2002-25, the Red Sox recorded the fourth-highest winning percentage in baseball (.546), notably setting a franchise record with 108 regular-season wins in 2018.

The team's on-field success has been accompanied by its determination to play a meaningful role in the community. Werner was instrumental in establishing and overseeing the Red Sox Foundation, which has become the largest and one of the fastest-growing team charities in Major League Baseball. Since its creation in 2002, the Red Sox Foundation has awarded over 7,000 grants to mission-aligned organizations, helped 373 Boston Public Schools students with college scholarships and mentoring through the Red Sox Scholars program, and supported thousands of youth baseball programs in Boston and throughout New England with its RBI and Little League programming. Additionally, the Foundation has helped support the critical services provided to 20,000 individuals each year at The Dimock Center in Roxbury, and through a longstanding and unique partnership that dates back to 1953, the Red Sox have helped the Jimmy Fund raise more than $190 million for cancer treatment and research at Dana-Farber Cancer Institute. In 2010, the Red Sox were the first organization ever to be awarded Major League Baseball's Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence for the impact of the Red Sox Scholars program on underserved youth in Boston.

Werner spearheaded the creation of the Home Base Program, a partnership between the Red Sox Foundation and Massachusetts General Hospital, following the teams' visits to Walter Reed Medical Center as an adjunct to their World Series ceremonies in the White House. To date, this significant partnership has provided treatment and care to over 50,000 veterans and their families suffering from the "invisible wounds of war," and garnered Werner and the Red Sox a pair of prestigious awards. In recognition of his leadership, Werner was honored with the United States Army's Outstanding Civilian Service Award on October 30, 2014. In November 2019, the Red Sox were once again named recipient of the Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence for the achievements of the Home Base program, making the Red Sox the first organization to win the award twice since its inception in 2010. For his efforts in founding the Home Base program, in May of 2021, Werner was presented with the Secretary of Defense Medal for Outstanding Public Service – the second highest award from the head of the Department of Defense, and in 2023, was awarded the prestigious Navy SEAL Foundation Patriot Award, presented to an individual or organization that has contributed significantly to our nation and demonstrated and upheld the same values epitomized by the Navy SEAL community.

Like so many Red Sox fans of his generation, Werner's infatuation with the club began in 1967, when as a freshman at Harvard, the New York native was caught up in the team's "Impossible Dream" journey to the World Series. He fell hard, both for the Red Sox and Fenway Park. For his Visual Studies class at Harvard, he created a documentary about Fenway Park, a project that presaged a phenomenally successful career that has included his enshrinement in the Television Academy Hall of Fame.

Embodying the values of integrity and quality, Werner and his partner, Marcy Carsey, have helped create over 1,600 half-hours of quality primetime comedies. These include: "That 70's Show", "ROSEANNE", "3rd Rock from the Sun", "The Cosby Show", "A Different World", "Cybill" and "Grace Under Fire." The Carsey-Werner partnership is widely regarded as one of the most successful independent television production companies in the history of the medium. Before starting Carsey-Werner, the duo worked for ABC television when they discovered Robin Williams in a comedy club and launched his career in "Mork and Mindy." They also provided opportunities to such talents as Tom Hanks ("Bosom Buddies"), Billy Crystal ("Soap"), Danny DeVito, and Tony Danza (both in "Taxi").

Werner is still actively producing numerous television series as well as theatrical productions. He recently co-produced The Picture of Dorian Gray on Broadway and a version of High Noon for the stage. He is currently co-producing Dracula in London's West End.

Born April 12, 1950, Werner in 2001 received the Lifetime Achievement Award from the Producers Guild of America. His company has earned 24 Emmy Awards, 11 People's Choice Awards, and numerous Golden Globes, Humanitas Prizes, and Peabody Awards. In 2000, Werner, Carsey, and their partner Caryn Mandabach joined forces with Geraldine Laybourne and Oprah Winfrey to start Oxygen, a 24-hour cable channel serving the modern woman. Since 2001, when Werner and his partners purchased the Red Sox, Fenway Park, and 80% of the New England Sports Network, NESN has become a highly acclaimed model for regional sports networks throughout the country, the first to broadcast Major League Baseball games in high definition and to launch a direct-to-consumer offering, NESN 360.

Werner has long immersed himself in the work of Major League Baseball and was a leader in the adoption of the wild-card playoff format, of which the 2004 club was an historic beneficiary. He presently serves on Major League Baseball's Competition Committee, MLBPA Joint Competition Committee, and Revenue Sharing Definitions Committee. In January of 2013, for his leadership and dedication to the game, Werner received the Dave Winfield Humanitarian Award from the Professional Baseball Scouts Foundation at the organization's annual "In the Spirit of the Game" Sports and Entertainment Spectacular.

Werner became Chairman of the Liverpool Football Club in 2010. In 2019, Liverpool defeated Premier League rival Tottenham, 2-0, in the UEFA Champions league final in Madrid. Liverpool further solidified its place atop the global elite by winning the FIFA Club World Cup in December 2019 and followed that up by capturing the 2019-20 Premier League title, the club's 19th topflight league championship. In 2025, the club captured its record-equaling 20th English Premier League title, a historic milestone that brings the club's total major trophies to 52.

In 2023, Werner became Chairman of Boston Common Golf, a tech-forward golf team representing Boston and New England, featuring PGA TOUR stars Rory McIlroy, Keegan Bradley, Adam Scott, Hideki Matsuyama, and Michael Thorbjornsen.

Werner spends much of the year in Boston, where he has a residence. He has served on many boards, including the White House Fellows Commission and the Ron Brown Scholar Program. He currently serves on the National Board for After School All Stars, a program helping more than 90,000 at-risk youth engage in after school activities.

Sam Kennedy, President and CEO

Sam Kennedy is in his 25th season with the Red Sox and his 11th as President and Chief Executive Officer. With more than 30 years of experience in Major League Baseball, Kennedy joined the Red Sox in 2002 and has helped lead one of the most successful eras in franchise history, a period defined by four World Series Championships (2004, 2007, 2013, 2018), consistent postseason appearances, significant long-term investment in Fenway Park, and the expansion of the organization beyond baseball.

Prior to joining the Red Sox, Kennedy spent six years with the San Diego Padres from 1996-2001. He began his career as an intern for the New York Yankees in 1993.

In March 2024, Kennedy was appointed Chief Executive Officer of Fenway Sports Group (FSG). In that role, he oversees the strategic direction of FSG's global portfolio, which includes the Red Sox, Liverpool F.C., RFK Racing, and other sports and entertainment assets and investments. He is one of the few executives in professional sports currently leading both a Major League Baseball team and a global, multi-club ownership platform.

Kennedy is an investor in Strategic Sports Group (SSG), a consortium of American sports team owners invested in PGA TOUR Enterprises, which controls all commercial activities related to the PGA TOUR. He also serves on the Board of Directors of PGA TOUR Enterprises.

Kennedy is active in several civic and educational institutions, serving on the Board of Trustees of Dana-Farber Cancer Institute and The Winsor School. He has been recognized throughout his career for his leadership and impact in the sports industry, including being a recipient of the Sports Business Journal's Forty Under 40 Award and later inducted into its Hall of Fame, an honor reserved for multi-year recipients who have demonstrated sustained influence and innovation.

A native of Boston, MA, who grew up within walking distance of Fenway Park, Kennedy is a former captain of the baseball team at Brookline High with friend and classmate Theo Epstein. Kennedy graduated from Trinity College (CT) in 1995. He and his wife Amanda live in the Boston area and have two children, Jimmy and Ally.

Craig Breslow, Chief Baseball Officer

Craig Breslow was named Chief Baseball Officer for the Boston Red Sox on October 25, 2023. In this role, he is responsible for all baseball operations matters.

Breslow spent the previous five seasons in the Chicago Cubs organization, most recently as Assistant General Manager/Senior Vice President, Pitching in 2023. His front office career began in 2019 with the Cubs as Director of Strategic Initiatives, evaluating and implementing data-based processes throughout all facets of baseball operations while also supporting the pitching infrastructure in the farm system. In 2020, he was named Director of Pitching/Special Assistant to the President and General Manager, then spent the 2021-22 seasons as Assistant General Manager/Vice President, Pitching.

A 2013 World Series champion with Boston, Breslow is only the fourth former Red Sox player to lead the club's baseball operations efforts, the first since Haywood Sullivan served as General Manager from 1978-83. Entering 2024, the only other active heads of baseball operations who played in MLB were the White Sox' Chris Getz, the Mariners' Jerry DiPoto, and the Rangers' Chris Young.

Selected by the Milwaukee Brewers in the 26th round of the 2002 First-Year Player Draft, Breslow pitched 12 Major League seasons and recorded a 3.45 ERA over 576 appearances for San Diego (2005), Boston (2006, '12-15), Cleveland (2008, '17), Minnesota (2008-09, '17), Oakland (2009-11), Arizona (2012), and Miami (2016). He appeared in 202 games for the Red Sox, notably posting a 1.81 ERA in 61 outings in the 2013 regular season to help Boston capture the American League East title en route to a World Series championship. Breslow allowed zero earned runs in nine of his 10 Postseason outings in 2013, earning the win in Boston's ALDS-clinching victory over the Rays before securing a hold in the club's ALCS-clinching win over the Tigers.

Breslow graduated in 2002 from Yale University with a degree in molecular biophysics and biochemistry. He was named the "Smartest Man in Baseball" by The Wall Street Journal in 2009, and in 2010 he ranked No. 1 on The Sporting News list of Top 20 Smartest Athletes.

In 2008, Breslow founded the Strike 3 Foundation, which aims to heighten awareness, mobilize support, and raise funding for childhood cancer research. In 2013, he earned the Red Sox' Tim Wakefield Community Service Award and was named the BoSox Club's "Man of the Year." Breslow was nominated for Major League Baseball's Roberto Clemente Award three times, including in 2010 with the Oakland A's and in 2013 and 2014 with the Red Sox.

Born in New Haven, CT, Breslow resides in Newton, MA, with his wife, Kelly; daughter, Livia; and twin boys, Mason and Carter.

CROSSROADS

From The Boston Globe's Alex Speier on 2/5/22:

Pete Fatse's mind stewed in the Phoenix Airport in the spring of 2011. As he waited for an unwanted flight home, the Western Massachusetts native, fresh off his release by the Brewers, ticked through a list of peers in minor league camp whom he considered less deserving of a roster spot.

But the 23-year-old's exercise in frustration quickly yielded to realism.

"I remember just sitting there in the airport thinking to myself, 'I'm the only guy here. This is all on me,'" said Fatse. "At that moment, I decided basically, you either go home and you get prepped for law school, or you try and figure out what makes you you [as a baseball player]. It's one or the other."

FAMILY FIRST

After losing his grandmother the day prior, Abreu recorded his 1st career multi-HR game in the Red Sox' 7-2 win at TEX on 8/4/2024.

In the 4th inning, Abreu hit a game-tying solo HR. He pointed to the sky while rounding 1st base and was consoled by teammates and coaches afterwards in the dugout. His next at-bat came in the 6th inning, with runners on 2nd and 3rd and a 3-2 lead against LHP Walter Pennington. Despite walking up to the plate with 0 career HR off of left-handed pitchers, Abreu hit a 3-run HR to extend Boston's lead to 6-2. He again pointed to the sky while heading home.

After the game, Abreu told media, "I was playing for her. I dedicated this game to her and I was playing with my heart in my hands. So for me to be able to go out there and perform, it was very special." Regarding the support his teammates showed, Abreu continued, "We're a family and they showed that today. They showed that I can rely on them and they know that they can rely on me as well and so forth. So it's very nice for me to count on them as a family and to have that support."

Manager Alex Cora felt something special was brewing, and allowed Abreu to remain in the game in the 6th inning, a situation where he could have pinch-hit for the left-handed hitter against a left-handed pitcher. "God is good," said Cora. "And, sometimes you make decisions in the game by the metrics. I'll tell you right now, I let him hit because I was like, 'Something good is going to happen here against a lefty.' That's life. We're believers and we're not perfect. And we try to live the good life. And the Lord kind of rewarded him."

RBI GUY

Abreu's 8-game RBI streak from 4/18-27/2024 was:

- 🔥 The longest ever by a Red Sox rookie.
- 🔥 The longest by a Red Sox player under the age of 25 since Ted Williams' 12-game streak in 1942.
- 🔥 The 2nd-longest streak by any player in 2024 (see below).

During that streak, Abreu recorded a go-ahead RBI in 6 straight games from 4/18-23. That marked the longest streak by any Red Sox player in the Expansion Era (since 1961). No other Sox player in that span has recorded a go-ahead RBI in more than 4 straight games (source: Elias).

I'LL ALWAYS BE YOUR FRIEND

The following are excerpts from a story published by The Athletic in March 2025. It details a 2010 meeting with former All-Star Dee Strange-Gordon at a Walmart in Chattanooga, TN, when Strange-Gordon became a mentor to 7-year old Kristian and his parents, Kenneth and Tonya:

"We walk through the door, and I see this little red-headed, light-skinned kid. And his baseball uniform, from neck to toe, is covered in clay," Strange-Gordon said. "So I look at him, and something told me to stop. I stopped. And I was like, 'Little man, I like how you play.'..." "That's how my jersey looks after games," Strange-Gordon told Kristian. "Listen, man, I'm with the Chattanooga Lookouts. You can come watch me play any time you want to."

"The Campbells regularly attended Chattanooga's games during the 2010 season. Strange-Gordon grew so close to Kristian, the family occasionally would host him for dinner. But Kristian's connection with Strange-Gordon and the Lookouts wasn't simply as a fan. He became a batboy for the team..."

"The following year, upon learning of Strange-Gordon's promotion to Triple-A Albuquerque, Kristian started crying. His father called Strange-Gordon and put him on speaker so Kristian could hear. The Campbells never forgot what Strange-Gordon told their son. "I'll always be your friend," Strange-Gordon said."

"Dee was my first role model when it came to baseball, my introduction to baseball," Kristian said. "He was really good to me and my family. He's still a mentor to me to this day."

"Not only did he invite the family to watch him play when the team visited Nashville, but also he asked Kenneth, a 10th-grade world history teacher, and Tonya, an accountant, if he could buy the kids Air Jordans."

"I relied on Dee a lot for a lot of information," Kenneth said. "Any time Dee was having a camp here in Atlanta, we would drive down just to try to learn about baseball. Any time I got a chance to ask Dee a question, I did."

TED AND TRISTON

Triston recorded his 25th career HR on 8/17/23 at WSH and his 75th career walk on 8/21/23 at HOU. He joined Ted Williams as the only Red Sox ever to record at least 25 HR and 75 walks in 140 games or fewer, and became the first Major Leaguer to do that since Juan Soto in 2018-19.

Through his 150th career game on 9/4/23 at TB, Triston had 27 HR and a .365 OBP. He became the 43rd player to appear in 150 games for the Red Sox before turning 24 years old, but he joined Ted Williams as the only two to record at least 25 HR and a .350 OBP in those 150 games.

TOUGH AS NAILS

Triston frequently sports painted fingernails and toenails, a style he says began as a unique way to spend time with his mother. In 2023, he told the Boston Globe, "I've always got to get my nails done. It was this little bonding thing we had always done and a couple of months ago after the season ended, I was just like, 'I'm just gonna get a color'...My mom was super surprised." He continued on about the importance of showcasing his personality, saying, "I want to make sure that I do good with my platform. I feel like as a baseball player, sometimes I lose focus and perspective as to what really matters."

HIGH PRAISE

Following the 2020 Tokyo Olympic Games, Team USA manager Mike Scioscia told Baseball America:

"Triston Casas at first base was the biggest bat on our team and has the most upside, I think, of any player we had. He's going to get his opportunity in the big leagues for sure. He's advanced beyond his age as far as a hitter. He understands what pitchers are trying to do to him. He's made some adjustments to his swing just from the qualifiers to now that were tremendous. And I think his ability to hit right and left-handed pitching is a skill set that you don't see in a lot of young hitters. Especially left-handed hitters. I think he's a student of the game. He's got tremendous power to all fields and he's going to play in the big leagues for a long time."

NO SHOES, NO SHIRT, NO PROBLEM

In 2022, particularly on warmer days, Triston would often walk the Fenway Park outfield barefoot. "I don't necessarily like caffeine. I don't drink coffee or energy drinks. I feel better after I get some sunlight on my body and that's what I do. I don't think too much of it in terms of grounding or any science behind it, but I just feel better after I do it."

FAMILY HERITAGE

Triston is fluent in Spanish. His grandparents immigrated to the United States from Cuba in the 1960s. His father, Jose, spoke Spanish as a first language.

"My family comes from a line of construction workers," Casas told MassLive.com in 2019. "So seeing my dad go to work every morning, leaving the house 4:30, 5:00 every morning and going to do his thing, it definitely took an impact on me. Lazy's one thing in our family that will not be tolerated. And he's always instilled that into me through actions."

PIANO MAN

"I play a little bit of the piano," Casas told MassLive.com in 2019. "I took a beginners class in ninth grade at my school. I know a little bit of it. Whenever I feel a little bored, I'll go and read some lyrics and try to play it as best as I could."

SEAL THE DEAL

During spring training in 2021, Jarren shared with MLB.com's Jon Paul Morosi that he once contemplated becoming a U.S. Navy SEAL. "I don't like to quit," Duran said. "That's a big thing when I've seen them. If you want to succeed, you can't quit. That inspired me. These guys just don't quit. They're winners. That's their thing: 'I'm going to win at everything I do.' ... The brotherhood they have is inseparable. It can't be compared to anybody, because you have to trust the person to your left and right with your life...The hard work those guys do—and the great things they do for us—was a huge inspiration to me."

"My family and I have been strong supporters of adoption for as long as I can remember, as it's what made our family complete. I hope that our story and my campaign will inspire others to learn more about the life-changing benefits of adoption. My mom adopted my little sister Reanna when she was 4 years old. I remember meeting her for the first time when my mom brought her to my high school baseball game. I knew even then she was going to change our lives for the better, and we would help change hers."

Mainly pitched for Double-A Portland and Triple-A Worcester during the 2021-22 seasons before making his MLB debut on 8/29/22 at MIN.

WHAT A WEEK

In a span of 5 days, Zack made his MLB debut and became a father. On 8/29/22, he was selected to the Major League roster and then made his debut that night at MIN, striking out each of his first 2 batters faced in a scoreless 6th inning. On 9/2/22, he and his wife, Brittany, welcomed their first child, Kayden. In addition, Zack was named Red Sox Minor League Relief Pitcher of the Month for August 2022.

BACK ON THE HORSE

After missing 143 games due to injury, Zack returned to pitching in the majors on 9/26/23.

"It was important to me to get back no matter how many or how little games we have left, but to get back and be able to close the book on this chapter, because I really didn't want a five-month thing to turn into a 10-month thing and be out until next spring training," Kelly told media after his outing on 9/26/23 vs. TB. "So it's very important that I got back and I'm happy we accomplished that today."

SETTING UP CAMP

In January 2024, 2025, and 2026, Trevor has hosted a group of Red Sox Major League and minor league position players for a mini camp at his training facility in Texas. "Story Camp" was an idea he picked up from former teammate Troy Tulowitzki when he was a minor leaguer in the Rockies system. "This is something I always wanted to do, and I think I'm at a position now that I have some good things to share. Just create chemistry too, be around these guys and get to know them a little bit. That's the biggest thing—we're creating relationships."

WHAT A WEEK

Trevor was introduced to Red Sox fans at a press conference in Fort Myers, FL, on Wednesday, 3/23/22. The next night, he received a call from his wife, who was going into labor back in Texas. "Yeah, it was in the middle of the night Thursday night, my wife called me and said this thing might be happening," Story told reporters. "I didn't sleep any that night. Got the earliest flight we could get out [Friday], jumped on it, and it was like a movie where I was speeding to the hospital and running through the lobby and straight to the delivery room. And he came very quick after that. I barely made it. Mama held on for me."

ON THE BIG STAGE

In the 2021 Postseason, Garrett made 3 consecutive scoreless and hitless appearances of more than 1.0 inning, matching MLB's longest such streak in a single Postseason (also NYY's Ron Davis in 1981). The only other Red Sox to make as many as 3 scoreless and hitless appearances of more than 1.0 inning at any point in a single Postseason are Koji Uehara (3 in 2013), Hideki Okajima (3 in 2007), and Keith Foulke (3 in 2004). The only Red Sox with more than 3 such appearances in an entire Postseason career are Okajima (5), Jonathan Papelbon (5), and Mike Timlin (4).

Garrett is the only Red Sox pitcher ever to throw 2.0+ hitless and scoreless innings in consecutive Postseason appearances. That ties the longest such streak in MLB history, as he became the 16th pitcher to accomplish the feat in a single Postseason for any team.

Boston is one of only four remaining charter members of the American League, which was formed in 1901. The Red Sox franchise won five of Major League Baseball's 15 World Series championships from 1903-1918 and has seen similar success under the current ownership group, adding four titles in a 15-year span from 2004-2018. Along the way, Boston has been at the center of some of the game's greatest moments and served as a home to some of its most accomplished players. Playing their home games at "America's Most Beloved Ballpark," the Red Sox have called Fenway Park home since 1912, making it baseball's oldest venue and one of the most famous landmarks in all of sports. Thirty-eight former Red Sox have been enshrined in the National Baseball Hall of Fame for their playing careers, from legends like Cy Young and Babe Ruth, to Ted Williams, the greatest hitter who ever lived. In one of the franchise's signature moments, the Red Sox rallied for the biggest comeback in baseball history in 2004, defeating the New York Yankees in the ALCS after trailing in the series, three games to none. In 2013, the Red Sox demonstrated how important a role they can play in their community, using yet another World Series championship to help a city heal after the tragic events of the Boston Marathon bombing. Boston claimed three consecutive AL East titles from 2016-2018 and capped off the 2018 season—which featured a franchise-record 108 regular-season victories—with the ninth World Series championship in the club's history.

How They Became the "Red Sox"

The Boston American League Base Ball Club was officially known as the Americans, but also known by the media as the Somersets—after owner Charles Somers—as well as the Plymouth Rocks, Speed Boys, Puritans, and Pilgrims. These various names were applied until December 18, 1907, when the current name "Red Sox" was adopted. The origin of this name is traced to the Boston Red Stockings of the powerful National League in the 1870s and 1880s. In 1907, the Red Stockings (who later became the Braves) abandoned the red hosiery they customarily wore, as Manager Fred Tenney believed that the red dye in the socks could possibly cause infection in spike wounds. Red Sox Owner John I. Taylor stated, "From now on we'll wear red stockings, and I'm grabbing that name Red Sox!"

The Early Years (1901-1938)

The Boston Americans didn't need long to cement their status as a serious contender. In 1903, the team finished in first place with a 91-47 record and earned a berth in Major League Baseball's first ever World Series against the Pittsburgh Pirates of the more established National League. Boston won the best-of-nine series, five games to three, in only its third year of existence, causing such an embarrassment that the National League refused to participate in the World Series the following year when the Americans repeated as AL champions. During that 1904 season, Boston went 95-59 and saw Cy Young pitch the first perfect game of the modern era on May 5. In the latter half of the decade, Young continued to dominate, throwing a no-hitter in New York in 1908 on the way to his 511 career wins, still the most in MLB history.

Cy Young pitched the first perfect game of the modern era in 1904.

When Fenway Park opened in 1912—replacing Huntington Avenue Grounds as the Red Sox' home ballpark—a decade of dynasty began. The new park, named after its location in the Fenway area of Boston, opened April 20, 1912, with the Red Sox taking a 7-6, 11-inning decision from the New York Highlanders (Yankees). With a 105-47 record that season, the Sox headed for the World Series and defeated the Giants, four games to three with one tie. The Red Sox picked up a young left-handed pitcher in 1914 by the name of George Herman "Babe" Ruth, who would figure prominently in the team's World Series dynasty of the next several years. The Sox went to the World Series three more times in the decade, winning in 1915, 1916, and 1918. Ruth was the hero in 1916, with a 23-12 regular-season record and a 1.75 ERA. In Game 2 of the World Series that year, Ruth pitched a 14-inning, complete-game, 2-1 win against Brooklyn. In 1918, Ruth extended his streak to 29.2 consecutive scoreless World Series innings, a record that stood until 1961, and also tied for the league lead with 11 home runs.

After Sox owner Harry Frazee sold Ruth and most of his best players to the Yankees, the “Roaring Twenties” were anything but for the Red Sox. To add to difficulties on the field, Fenway Park itself suffered a setback. On May 8, 1926, fire roared through the ballpark, destroying much of the left-field bleacher sections. Then-owner Bob Quinn could not afford to rebuild the sections, and the difficult decade for the Sox continued. When 30-year-old millionaire Tom Yawkey bought the club in 1933, his first order of business was to rebuild the fire-scarred stadium. Ironically, on January 5, 1934, during construction of the new Fenway Park, another fire raged through and destroyed much of the progress. The Red Sox fielded far better teams in the 1930s than they had in the decade prior, and also saw attendance figures increase, especially after Fenway was refurbished. On August 12, 1934, 46,766 fans attended Ruth’s farewell game at Fenway, spilling out onto the field.

The Ted Williams Era (1939-1960)

1939 brought forth a new era in Red Sox baseball, when Ted Williams began his legendary career at only 20 years old. That season, the Red Sox had five future Hall of Famers on the roster in Williams, Joe Cronin, Jimmie Foxx, Lefty Grove, and Bobby Doerr. The early 1940s featured several individual milestones, highlighted by Williams batting .406 in 1941 and winning the Triple Crown in 1942, as well as Grove earning his 300th victory. After winning only 71 games in 1945, the Sox claimed the 1946 pennant by a comfortable 12-game margin with 104 wins before falling to the St. Louis Cardinals in seven games in the World Series. Fenway also played host to the 1946 All-Star Game, in which Williams went 4-for-4 with two home runs. Coming off the AL pennant year, Williams won a second Triple Crown in 1947. Lights were also installed that season to start the era of night baseball at Fenway. Despite collecting 96 wins in 1948 and 1949, the Sox finished both seasons one game out of first place.

By the end of the 1940s, Williams had established himself as one of the greatest players in baseball. He had played eight Major League seasons through 1949—missing the 1943-45 seasons to serve in World War II—and in that time he earned two MVP awards, two Triple Crowns, four RBI titles, four home run titles, and four batting titles. Along with Williams and Doerr—one of the game’s greatest second basemen—the Red Sox’ impressive core featured standout center fielder Dom DiMaggio and shortstop Johnny Pesky, with the four players forming a special bond that would one day be the inspiration for a statue outside of Fenway Park titled, “Teammates.” Doerr and Williams would end up in the National Baseball Hall of Fame, while DiMaggio was a seven-time All-Star and Pesky spent 61 seasons in the Red Sox organization in various capacities.

Ted Williams began his Hall of Fame career with the Red Sox in 1939.

The 1950s brought more offensive prowess for the Sox, with the 1950 club featuring perhaps the best-hitting Red Sox team ever. Boston hit .302 as a team and scored 1,027 runs—both franchise records that still stand today—as Billy Goodman won the batting championship (.354) and helped the team post a 94-60 record, the club’s best mark of the decade. For the second time in his career, Williams put off baseball for military service, this time in the Korean War in 1952 and 1953. Upon his return, Williams continued his usual impressive hitting with a tremendous league-leading .388 batting average and 38 home runs in 1957, followed by a second straight batting title with a .328 average at the age of 40 in 1958. Meanwhile, Jackie Jensen won the RBI title in 1955 (tied), 1958, and 1959, and was named American League MVP in 1958. On July 21, 1959, infielder Pumpsie Green made his debut as the first Red Sox African-American Major Leaguer, a day that was recognized as a “Memorable Red Sox Moment” during the club’s 2018 Hall of Fame induction ceremonies.

The end of the 1950s also brought the end of the Williams era in Red Sox history. “Teddy Ballgame” hit his 521st and final home run into the Red Sox bullpen in his final Major League at-bat on September 28, 1960. The spot he vacated in left field was filled in 1961 by rookie Carl Yastrzemski, who would later match some of Williams’ feats as part of an illustrious 23-year career, all spent with the Red Sox en route to being enshrined in the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

The Birth of Red Sox Nation (1961-2001)

The early years of the post-Williams era featured several noteworthy accomplishments, including no-hitters by Earl Wilson and Bill Monbouquette in 1962, as well as Yastrzemski's first batting title in 1963. Dave Morehead added another no-hitter in 1965, but that season the Sox had their worst record of the decade, losing 100 games. After finishing in ninth place in 1966 with 90 losses, the Red Sox overcame 100-to-1 odds to win the "Impossible Dream" pennant in 1967 with a 92-70 record. Though they did not win the World Series, that season lives on as one of the greatest in Red Sox history, beginning a stretch of 16 consecutive winning seasons (1967-82), which is still a club record. During that magical 1967 season, Jim Lonborg won 22 games and the Cy Young Award, while Yastrzemski won the Triple Crown and was named MVP of the American League.

While Yastrzemski and Massachusetts native Tony Conigliaro helped carry the Red Sox into the 1970s, a young catcher and New England native by the name of Carlton Fisk made his mark by unanimously winning the 1972 Rookie of the Year Award. Pitcher Luis Tiant thrilled Sox fans and took home the ERA title that season. Two other famous rookies, Jim Rice and Fred Lynn, were added to the mix in 1975, contributing to another AL championship season. Lynn won both MVP and Rookie of the Year honors, the first player ever to do so in the same year, while Rice hit 22 home runs to Lynn's 21. In Game 6 of the 1975 World Series, Bernie Carbo's two-out, three-run home run against the Reds in the 8th inning tied the game at 6-6. Fisk then left his mark on baseball history when he hit a 12th-inning pitch off the left-field foul pole for a dramatic finish for the Red Sox, in what many consider to be the greatest World Series game ever. Once again, however, the Sox came up short, and were defeated by Cincinnati in seven games.

Yaz was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 1989.

The Sox continued to be successful through the end of the 1970s, winning 97 games in 1977, 99 in 1978, and 91 in 1979. Rice won the home run title in 1977 and took home MVP honors in 1978, Lynn won the 1979 batting championship, and Yastrzemski recorded his 3,000th hit on September 12, 1979. Dwight Evans did his part, not only with his bat, but also in right field, picking up three Gold Glove Awards in the last four seasons of the decade.

The Red Sox' next great run came in 1986, a season that got off to an auspicious start when Evans homered in Detroit on the first pitch of the Major League season. Roger Clemens, who won the Cy Young and MVP Awards, dominated AL batters in 1986, winning 24 games—including his first 14 decisions—with a 2.48 ERA. He also broke a Major League record, striking out 20 batters in a 3-1 win over Seattle on April 29. Wade Boggs led the offense, winning his third of five batting titles in the decade. Under manager John McNamara's leadership, the team won 95 games and came back from a three-games-to-one deficit in the ALCS to earn a World Series matchup with the Mets, which the Sox lost in seven games. The Red Sox returned to their winning ways in 1988 with Joe Morgan's miracle team. After Morgan took over from McNamara in July, the Sox won 12 straight and 19 of 20 games, to come from nine games behind and move into first place in the AL East. "Morgan's Magic" became the team's slogan, but the Red Sox were overpowered by Oakland in the ALCS.

The Sox started the next decade off on the right foot by winning the AL East in 1990. They fared well after the new division setup was established in 1995, reaching postseason play three times in the final five years of the decade. In 1995, the Red Sox and the Cleveland Indians started a Division Series rivalry that would last throughout the decade. Behind the powerful hitting of Mo Vaughn—who led the AL in home runs and earned the MVP Award—and the stable pitching of Clemens and knuckleballer Tim Lincecum, the Sox won the East Division title and faced the Indians in the 1995 ALDS. In 1996, Clemens struck out 20 batters in a game for the second time in his career, tying his own Major League record. In 1997, shortstop Nomar Garciaparra made his way to Fenway and picked up the Rookie of the Year Award while leading the league with 209 hits.

The 1998 campaign began a string of 14 consecutive winning seasons for the Red Sox (1998-2011), as Boston earned back-to-back postseason appearances in 1998 and 1999. The Sox' winning ways of 1998 coincided with the arrival of Pedro Martinez, who won the 1997 Cy Young Award as a member of the Montreal Expos before being traded to the Red Sox that offseason. After winning 19 games and posting a 2.89 ERA in 1998, Martinez won another Cy Young Award in 1999 and finished second in MVP voting, going 23-4 with a 2.07 ERA. The Sox also hosted the final All-Star Game of the century in 1999, with Martinez retiring all six batters faced—five on strikeouts—en route to MVP honors. Martinez repeated as Cy Young Award winner in 2000, the same year Garciaparra won his second consecutive AL batting title (.372). On December 13, 2000, the Red Sox signed outfielder Manny Ramirez, a move that would help make Boston one of the best offensive teams of the 2000s. On April 4, 2001, Hideo Nomo won his Red Sox debut by throwing the club's first no-hitter since 1965, but the Sox would win only 82 games that season, the final year of Jean R. Yawkey Trust ownership era.

A New Era (2002-Present)

Prior to the 2002 season, a new ownership group led by John Henry, Tom Werner, and Larry Lucchino took control of the Red Sox and instilled unprecedented success and change to the organization. Following a 93-69 season that featured yet another no-hitter—thrown by Derek Lowe—Theo Epstein was named General Manager on November 25, 2002, making him the youngest in MLB history at 28 years and 10 months old. Epstein made offseason moves to help the team become an offensive powerhouse that set several records. The additions of David Ortiz, Kevin Millar, Bill Mueller, and Todd Walker solidified a batting order that produced 961 runs, 2nd-most in club history, and hit 238 home runs, then a single-season franchise record. The 2003 Red Sox had an exciting 95-67 regular season, their most wins since 1995, and came back from a 2-0 deficit in the ALDS to win three straight vs. Oakland and advance to the ALCS against the Yankees. A dramatic seven-game series wasn't resolved until Aaron Boone's 11th-inning home run stopped the Red Sox.

In his first year as manager, Terry Francona led the 2004 Red Sox to a 98-64 record and a Wild Card berth. The Sox swept the Anaheim Angels in the ALDS, as Ortiz's dramatic home run in the 10th inning of Game 3 ensured a rematch with the Yankees for the AL pennant. After dropping the first three games to New York, the Red Sox rallied behind the bat of Ortiz, the baserunning of Dave Roberts, timely hitting by Mueller, an airtight bullpen, and the gritty performance of Curt Schilling to win the final four games of the series, completing the greatest comeback in Major League history. The Red Sox then swept the Cardinals to win the World Series for the sixth time, the first since 1918. Martinez and Schilling became the first Red Sox teammates ever to strike out 200 batters in the same season, while Ramirez and Ortiz became the first AL teammates to bat .300, hit 30 HR, and drive in 100 runs since 1931. The Red Sox sold out their entire 81-game home schedule for the first time in franchise history.

The Red Sox stormed the field in 2004 to celebrate the club's 1st World Series title since 1918.

The Sox followed with a 95-67 record in 2005, while the 2006 season was highlighted by Ortiz setting a single-season club record with 54 home runs. In 2007, the Red Sox clinched their first AL East title since 1995, going 96-66. After sweeping the Angels 3-0 in the ALDS, Boston went down three games to one in the ALCS vs. Cleveland. The Sox completed another comeback to clinch their 12th AL pennant, then swept the Rockies to win their second World Series title in four years and seventh overall. The Sox joined the Yankees as the only teams in AL history to sweep in successive World Series appearances. Boston led the AL East for the final 166 days of 2007 beginning April 18, the longest consecutive stretch in club history.

The 2008 Red Sox began their World Series title defense on March 25, 2008 in Tokyo, Japan vs. the A's. The club finished with a 95-67 record to clinch their sixth AL Wild Card berth. After defeating the Los Angeles Angels three games to one in the ALDS, Boston lost the ALCS to the Rays in seven games. Dustin Pedroia, who earned Rookie of the Year honors in 2007, was named the AL's MVP in 2008. In 2009, for the 10th straight year, the Red Sox set a new club record for home attendance, an accomplishment unprecedented in MLB. Boston won 95 games that year, followed by 89 wins in 2010 and 90 in 2011.

After losing 93 games in 2012—a season that marked the 100th anniversary of Fenway Park—the 2013 Red Sox had a storybook year, going from last place to first place in the East, winning the AL pennant, and capturing their third World Series title in 10 years (eighth overall). New manager John Farrell, the club's pitching coach from 2007-10, became the fourth manager to lead the Red Sox to a World Series title in his first year. At 97-65, the Sox were in first place an AL-high 158 days after failing to spend one day in first in 2012. The all-time home sellout streak in American sports history ended on April 10, the second game of the season. The streak began on May 15, 2003 and reached 794 games, plus 26 more in postseason play. Following the tragic events of the Boston Marathon bombing on April 15, Ortiz ignited a rallying cry for the city during a pre-game speech on April 20, the club's first home game since the marathon. Standing on the pitcher's mound, Ortiz declared, "This is our [expletive] city" and urged fans to "stay strong." Following a comeback win over the Royals that day, "Boston Strong" became the team's—and the city's—mantra. It all culminated in October with wins over Tampa Bay in the ALDS (3-1), Detroit in the ALCS (4-2), and St. Louis in the World Series (4-2). It was the first time the Red Sox clinched a World Series title at home since 1918. Ortiz went 11-for-16 (.688) with two home runs and eight walks in the Fall Classic en route to World Series MVP honors, with his game-tying grand slam in Game 2 of the ALCS saving the Sox' season as one of the most clutch hits in the franchise's history.

The 2014 and 2015 seasons were highlighted by the emergence of several young players, including Mookie Betts, Xander Bogaerts, and Jackie Bradley Jr. On August 18, 2015, Dave Dombrowski was hired as President of Baseball Operations, a newly created position in the organization. In his first full season, Dombrowski helped the Red Sox return to the top of the division, as they won 15 more games in 2016 (93) than they did in 2015 (78) en route to the AL East title. With Ortiz leading the way during his farewell tour season, Boston led the majors in runs scored with 878, while Rick Porcello won the AL Cy Young Award. The Ortiz era came to a close on October 10 when, after Boston's 4-3 loss to Cleveland in Game 3 of the ALDS, the largest postseason crowd in Fenway Park history (39,530) stayed long after the final out to give Big Papi a proper sendoff. The Red Sox won 93 games and were crowned champions of the AL East once again in 2017, but they were eliminated by the eventual AL champion for the second time in as many years, this time suffering a three-games-to-one loss to the Houston Astros. Chris Sale finished second in AL Cy Young Award voting in his Red Sox debut, as he led the majors with 308 strikeouts in a season that was constantly compared to Martinez's magical 1999 run. The Sox tied a franchise record with 15 extra-inning wins against only three losses thanks to an outstanding bullpen led by Craig Kimbrel, who earned the Mariano Rivera American League Reliever of the Year Award.

The Red Sox are the only franchise to win 4 World Series titles in the 21st century.

Alex Cora was hired on October 22, 2017, becoming only the second Puerto Rico native to manage a Major League team. In 2018 he helped the Red Sox win 17 of their first 19 games en route to a 108-54 record, the club's third consecutive AL East title, and the franchise's fourth World Series championship in 15 years. The Sox' 108 wins bested the club's previous record of 105, which had been set in 1912. Among many individual accolades, Betts was named the AL's Most Valuable Player. In his first season with Boston, J.D. Martinez hit .330 with 43 home runs and 130 RBI, as he earned the AL's Hank Aaron Award. The Sox saw their run of AL East titles come to a halt in 2019, a year in which they joined the Yankees in the two-game London Series from June 29-30, MLB's first games ever played in Europe. Boston set the franchise's single-season home run record (245), while Martinez, Bogaerts, and Rafael Devers became the first Sox trio ever to hit at least .300 with 30 or more home runs in the same season. In 2020, Sale and Eduardo Rodriguez missed the entire season on the injured list as the Sox finished 24-36 in a season shortened due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The Club returned to the Postseason in 2021, finishing 92-70 before defeating the Yankees in the AL Wild Card Game, 6-2, in front of an electric Fenway Park. The Red Sox went on to upset the division-winning Rays in the ALDS, 3 games to 1, treating their fans to walk-off victories in Games 3 and 4. The team's magical run ended at the hands of the Astros in the ALCS, as Boston fell just 2 wins shy of reaching the World Series. In 2022, the Red Sox finished below .500 (78-84) in a full season for the first time since 2015, as they went 52-34 outside of the AL East but struggled in divisional play (26-50). On January 11, 2023, the Red Sox signed Devers to a 10-year contract extension spanning the 2024-33 seasons, the longest contract in franchise history. Boston finished 78-84 yet again in 2023, reaching a season-high nine games above .500 at 56-47 before going 22-37 from July 29 through the end of the season. In 2024, Craig Breslow's first season as Chief Baseball Officer, the Red Sox used a franchise-record 57 players and finished in 3rd place in the AL East at 81-81. Jarren Duran finished 8th in AL MVP voting and right fielder Wilyer Abreu joined Carlton Fisk and Fred Lynn as the only Red Sox rookies ever to win a Gold Glove Award, while Brayan Bello, Kutter Crawford, and Tanner Houck became the 1st homegrown trio of Red Sox starters to make 30+ starts in a season since 1987. A patch with Tim Wakefield's number 49 was worn by players and coaches on their jersey sleeve throughout the season; the navy patch was shaped like a heart, a nod to Wakefield's role as Honorary Chairman of the Red Sox Foundation. On July 24, the club and Cora agreed to a three-year contract extension through the 2027 season. After 42 years as a broadcaster (1983-2024), Joe Castiglione announced his retirement, and prior to the Red Sox' final game of the regular season pre-game ceremonies included a proclamation from City of Boston Mayor Michelle Wu designating September 29 as "Joe Castiglione Day." Netflix produced a season-long documentary that featured unprecedented access to players, coaches, and executives, with the project releasing in the spring of 2025. The Red Sox acquired pitcher Garrett Crochet from the Chicago White Sox in a blockbuster trade in December to set the table for a 2025 season in which the Red Sox returned to the Postseason, led by an emerging core of young talent and veteran free agent acquisitions like Alex Bregman and Aroldis Chapman. The club traded homegrown superstar Rafael Devers to the San Francisco Giants in June, shortly after the MLB's top overall prospect Roman Anthony made his Major League debut, and Anthony quickly emerged to finish third in AL Rookie of the Year voting by batting .292 (75-for-257) in 71 games as a 21-year-old. During the year, the Red Sox agreed to long-term extensions with both Crochet (6 years) and Anthony (8 years), as well as AL Rookie of the Month for March/April Kristian Campbell (8 years). Boston's season ended in the Bronx, as they lost the rubber match of a 3-game Wild Card Series at Yankee Stadium. Two winter trades with the St. Louis Cardinals kickstarted Boston's offseason, as the club acquired Sonny Gray on November 25 and first baseman Willson Contreras on December 22.

NOTE: The W-L-T columns total 1 game less than the 19,463 game total reflected above as a result of a protested game and a Major League ruling. On 7/28/1924 the Red Sox played a 10-inning game vs. STL, a supposed 10-5 win. St. Louis protested the game and AL President Ban Johnson ordered the game replayed on 9/13 as the 2nd game of a doubleheader. The game of 7/28 was discounted and Red Sox Manager Lee Fohl and the STL manager were credited with a no decision. The Red Sox won the replay of the protested game, 13-11.

Beginning with the 1920 season, the MLB rule states: "If a protested game of at least 5 innings duration was ordered replayed in its entirety, then no win or loss is credited, but both managers are credited with a no-decision game."

Red Sox Hall of Fame/Cooperstown

Since its inception in 1995, the Red Sox Hall of Fame has recognized the outstanding careers of former Red Sox players and managers. Selections are made by a committee comprised of club executives, local and national media members, historians, and fan representatives.

To be eligible for nomination, players and managers must have spent at least three years with the Red Sox and have been out of uniform as an active player or manager at least three years.

Also eligible for induction are non-playing and non-managing personnel, which include front office executives, broadcasters, scouts and coaches, as well as other deserving members of the Red Sox organization.

The committee also singles out a memorable moment in Red Sox history for special recognition.

Tony Conigliaro Award

In 1990, the Red Sox instituted a national award to honor the memory of their former star outfielder Tony Conigliaro. The award is presented to a Major Leaguer who has overcome adversity through the attributes of spirit, determination and courage, which were trademarks of Tony C. Voting is conducted by media members, MLB executives, Red Sox officials, and members of the Conigliaro family.

Conigliaro died on 2/24/1990 after an 8-year struggle to return from a massive heart attack that left him severely handicapped. Tony signed with the Red Sox in 1963 after graduating from St. Mary's High School in Lynn, MA. In his only minor league season, he hit .363 with 24 HR and 74 RBI in 83 games for Wellspring, earning New York-Penn League MVP Rookie of the Year honors. He broke in with the Red Sox in 1964, hit a HR in his 1st at-bat at Fenway Park, and finished with a .290 AVG and 24 HR to earn an All-Rookie selection. Tony became the youngest player to lead a league in HR with 32 in 1965 and the youngest AL player to reach 100 career HR. Mel Ott was the youngest in history at 22 years, 4 months, 10 days. He was 2nd-youngest (22 years, 6 months, 16 days). His career was tragically shortened when he was hit in the face by a pitch at Fenway Park 8/18/1967. He made a dramatic comeback in 1969, hit 56 HR with 198 RBI in 2 years, but he was never the same player. Conigliaro spent 1971 with the Angels and was out of baseball until he tried another comeback with the Red Sox in 1975. After an excellent Spring Training, he made the regular-season roster and got the team's 1st hit of that season and later the club's 1st HR. He was outrighted to Triple-A Pawtucket in mid-June and retired shortly after.

Thomas A. Yawkey Red Sox Most Valuable Player Award

Each year, the Boston chapter of the Baseball Writers' Association of America presents the Thomas A. Yawkey Award to the Red Sox Most Valuable Player. From 1937 through 1952 the award went to either a Red Sox or a member of the Boston Braves. The Braves moved to Milwaukee prior to the 1953 season and the award became strictly a Red Sox MVP selection. After Mr. Yawkey's death in 1976, the Boston Writers renamed the award in his honor. Carl Yastrzemski (6), David Ortiz (5), Roger Clemens (4), Dwight Evans (4), Mo Vaughn (4), Ted Williams (4), and Pedro Martinez (3) each won the award three or more times.

All-Star Games at Fenway Park

On 7/13/1999, the Red Sox hosted the 3rd All-Star Game ever to be played at Fenway Park. The American League defeated the National League, 4-1, as Pedro Martinez, the eventual MVP of the Mid-Summer Classic, started and struck out 5 of the 6 batters he faced for the win.

Fenway Park was the site of the 2nd All-Star Game played in 1961. That game featured solid pitching by both sides and ended in a 1-1 tie that was called after 9 innings and a 30-minute rain delay. The Tigers' Rocky Colavito hit a 1st-inning home run for the AL, which managed only 4 hits in the game. The NL's only run scored on an RBI single by the Cardinals' Bill White off Red Sox rookie Don Schwall, who allowed all 5 NL hits in 3.0 innings. The other Red Sox representative at the '61 game at Fenway was manager Mike Higgins, who served as a coach.

The 1st All-Star Game held at Fenway was on 7/9/1946 after a 1-year hiatus due to World War II-related travel restrictions. The American League defeated the National League, 12-0, in a game highlighted by the hitting heroics of Ted Williams. Williams delivered 2 home runs, 2 singles and a walk in his 5 plate appearances, scoring 4 runs and driving in 5 as the AL out-hit the NL, 14-3. In addition to Williams, 7 other Red Sox were AL All-Stars in '46: Johnny Pesky, Dom DiMaggio, Bobby Doerr, Rudy York, Hal Wagner, Dave Ferriss and Mickey Harris.

1945 All-Star Replacement Game

The 1945 All-Star Game was scheduled for Fenway Park. However, due to the on-going war in Europe and with Japan, the game was canceled, the only year no game was since the series began in 1933 until 2020.

On 7/9-10/1945, there were 9 exhibitions played with proceeds going to benefit war relief efforts. On 7/9, games were played at Chicago's Comiskey Park (Cubs vs. White Sox), New York's Polo Grounds (Yankees vs. Giants), in Great Lakes, IL (Athletics vs. Great Lakes Navy Team), in Cleveland (Reds vs. Indians), and in Indiantown Gap, PA (Pirates vs. Indiantown Gap Army Team). The biggest crowds were 47,144 (Chicago) and 41,267 (New York).

On 7/10, games were played at Washington's Griffith Stadium (Dodgers vs. Senators), St. Louis' Sportsman's Park (Cardinals vs. Browns), Boston's Fenway Park (Braves vs. Red Sox), and Philadelphia's Shibe Park (Phillies vs. Athletics). The highest attendance figures were in Washington (28,791) and St. Louis (24,113).

The only ML team that didn't play was Detroit, which was denied permission to travel to Pittsburgh by the U.S. Government. The Pirates therefore played a U.S. Army team. The A's played a game each day in 2 locations.

The game at Fenway Park drew 22,809 plus 846 servicemen and women and raised $70,000 for the United War Fund. New Commissioner Senator A.B. "Happy" Chandler made his 1st official visit to Boston and took part in the 1st-pitch ceremonies with Massachusetts Governor Maurice Tobin.

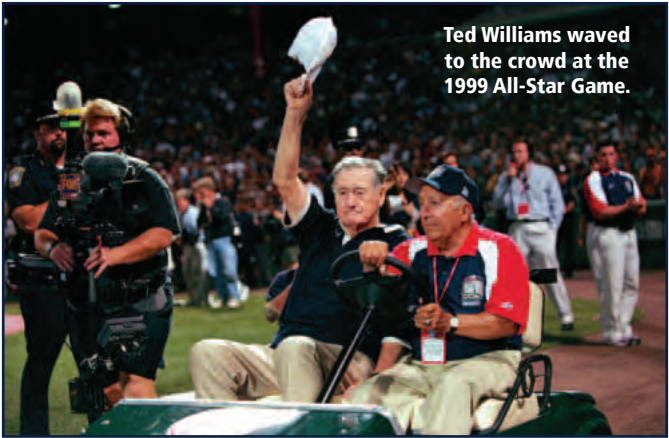

The Red Sox won the game, 8-1, behind rookie pitching star Dave Ferriss and 3 hits, including a home run, by right fielder George "Catfish" Metkovich.

Fenway Park

Major League Baseball's oldest and smallest ballpark, Fenway Park has been the home of the Boston Red Sox since April 20, 1912 when, after two days of rainouts, the park hosted its first regular season game, an 11-inning, 7-6 Boston win over the New York Highlanders in front of 27,000 fans.

In 114 seasons, venerable Fenway Park has been home to many of the greatest players in baseball history, including Hall of Famers Babe Ruth, Tris Speaker, Lefty Grove, Jimmie Foxx, Joe Cronin, Ted Williams, Bobby Doerr, Carl Yastrzemski, Carlton Fisk, Jim Rice, Pedro Martinez, and David Ortiz. The park has witnessed some of the most memorable moments in baseball history, highlighted, perhaps, by Fisk's 12th-inning home run to win Game 6 of the 1975 World Series, and the amazing comeback against the Yankees in Game 4 of the 2004 American League Championship Series.

Among the world's most famous sporting venues, Fenway Park is best known for the 37-foot high, 231-foot long "Green Monster" left-field wall, which looms only 310 feet from home plate. Equally enticing to hitters is "Pesky's Pole," the right-field foul pole named for Red Sox great Johnny Pesky, which stands only 302 feet from home plate.

Nestled into the Fenway neighborhood of Boston, the park was largely rebuilt for the 1934 season after a five-alarm fire destroyed construction underway by new owner Tom Yawkey. Fenway Park has undergone a series of improvements since the Henry-Werner Group purchased the team in 2002, and in 2023 it was recognized as the "Sports Facility of the Year" by the Sports Business Journal.

The astounding popularity of the ballpark and the team enabled the Red Sox to sell out 793 consecutive games from 2003-13, the longest recorded regular-season sellout streak in U.S. professional sports history. Hundreds of thousands of fans from all over the globe visit Fenway Park year-round. Tours of the ballpark, conducted in English, Spanish, and Japanese, are available daily.

The Seats

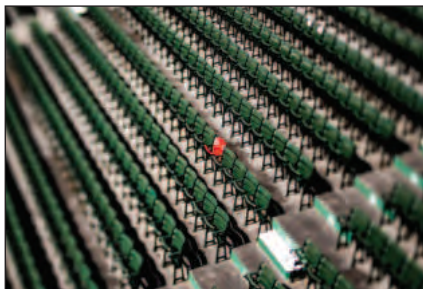

The Wooden Grandstands

Installed during the 1933-34 off-season, Fenway Park's wooden grandstand seats serve as living tributes to the ballpark's history. A fire in January 1934 interrupted renovations, but the park was ready for Opening Day, including these seats. Roughly 75 years later, as part of major improvements between 2008 and 2010, the seats were refurbished and reinstalled. Fans who attend games at Fenway Park today can sit in the same seats their grandparents (and great-grandparents) sat in decades prior.

The Red Seat

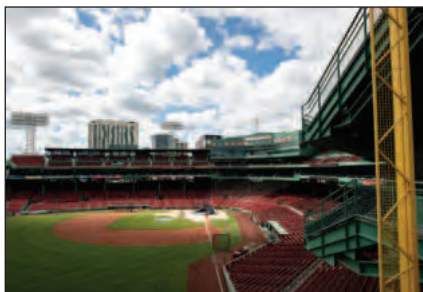

On June 9, 1946, Ted Williams hit a 502-foot home run to right field off Detroit RHP Fred Hutchinson. The ball landed on top of the straw hat of Joseph A. Boucher, 56, a construction engineer from Albany, NY who was sitting in Section 42, Row 37, Seat 21. "The sun was right in our eyes," he said. "All we could do was duck. I'm glad I didn't stand up. They say it bounced a dozen rows higher, but after it hit my head, I was no longer interested." At that time, the bleachers were benches and not individual seats. In 2016, David Ortiz said reaching the Red Seat is "unhuman." It is still the longest home run ever measured at Fenway Park.

The Foul Poles

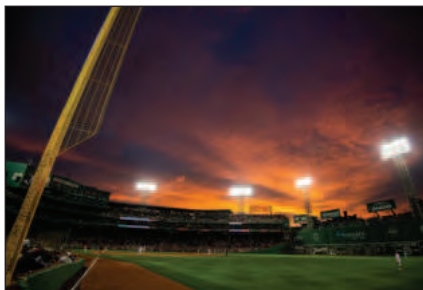

Fisk Pole

In Game 6 of the 1975 World Series, Carlton Fisk led off the bottom of the 12th inning with a walk-off home run that clanged off the foul pole above Fenway Park's Green Monster, giving the Red Sox a 7-6 win over the Cincinnati Reds and tying the series at 3-3. Nearly 30 years later, on June 13, 2005, prior to an Interleague game against the Reds, the Red Sox honored their former catcher by officially renaming it "Fisk Pole" during a ceremony in the Monster Seats. "The video of Fisk trying to wave the ball fair remains one of the game's enduring images," Red Sox then-president Larry Lucchino said in 2005. "That home run, and that World Series, helped revitalize baseball."

Pesky's Pole

Johnny Pesky was one of the longest-serving ambassadors in Red Sox history, spending 61 years with the organization in nearly every role imaginable, beginning with his minor league playing career in 1940 and lasting until his death at the age of 93 in 2012. Believed to be coined by former Red Sox pitcher Mel Parnell, Fenway Park's right field foul pole was informally known as "Pesky's Pole" for decades beginning in the 1960s, a playful reference to Pesky taking advantage of Fenway's short distance to the right field corner (302 feet). It wasn't until September 27, 2006 (Pesky's 87th birthday) that the Red Sox made the name official. The pole has been dented by baseballs and signed by thousands of fans over the years, though it underwent significant repairs and received a fresh coat of paint in December 2016.

The Green Monster

Fenway Park's "Green Monster"—the 37-foot, 2-inch wall that extends 231 feet from the left-field foul line to the center-field bleachers—is arguably the most iconic feature of any ballpark in Major League Baseball, rivaled only by Wrigley Field's ivy-covered walls and the upper-deck façade of Yankee Stadium.

"Duffy's Cliff"

The wall did not exist in its current incarnation when Fenway Park opened on April 20, 1912. The original wall was a 25-foot wood-plank fence held fast by horizontal supports known as "whalers" on the backside, built to keep spectators from watching from the Boston Garage Company across Lansdowne Street. The fence was fronted by a 6-to-10 foot earthen embankment, which extended from the bleachers to the property line and was needed because the plot of land on which Fenway Park was built was on an uneven grade, higher on the street side. The embankment was soon dubbed "Duffy's Cliff" because of the skillful way Red Sox left fielder Duffy Lewis navigated the incline in pursuit of fly balls. During the 1912 World Series against the New York Giants, seven rows of bleachers were temporarily installed on the embankment.

In Fenway Park's early years, a 25-foot wood-plank fence was fronted by an embankment known as "Duffy's Cliff."

First baseman Hugh Bradley, a Holy Cross graduate and native of Worcester, Mass., hit the first home run in Fenway Park on April 26, 1912, in the seventh inning of a 7-6 victory over the Philadelphia Athletics. Bradley's three-run home run, which erased a 6-4 deficit, cleared the wall in left field, which previously had been thought to be out of reach of hitters in baseball's "deadball" era. Paul Shannon, writing in the Boston Post, called it a "feat that may never be duplicated."

The Manual Scoreboard

The original left-field scoreboard was nearly identical to the one built in Detroit's Navin Field, which opened on the same day as Fenway Park in 1912. It was called an electronic scoreboard, but that was only partially the case; a pressbox keyboard operator communicated information to the scoreboard operators electronically. Operators behind the scoreboard then scrambled up and down a network of ladders and steps and benches, and manually slid markers into slots.

A new scoreboard debuted after Fenway Park was renovated for the 1934 season, the first truly electronically operated scoreboard in baseball with its red, green and yellow lights to signal balls, strikes and outs. It remains one of two manually operated scoreboards in the Major Leagues, the other being in Wrigley Field.

Creating a Monster

When Fenway Park was renovated for the 1934 season, work crews leveled Duffy's Cliff and replaced the wooden fence with what we now know as the Green Monster. The lower 18 feet of the wall was concrete and topped by a 19-foot frame made of 2-by-4 railroad ties bolted together, the entire structure covered with a skin of tin. The wall's reinforced steel-and-concrete foundation extended 22 feet below field level.

Red Sox left fielder Julius "Moose" Solters hit the first home run over the new wall on April 19, 1934, a walk-off home run in the ninth inning of a 5-4 victory over the Washington Senators in the first game of a Patriots Day doubleheader. Newspaper reports said Solters' home run off General Crowder of the Senators went into the windows of the auto shop across Lansdowne Street.

After the 1933 season, the wooden fence in left field was replaced by what we know today as the Green Monster (photo courtesy of the Boston Public Library).

In 1936, a 23-foot, 7-inch net was placed on top of the wall, to protect the windows of business establishments across the street. It was a prudent decision: right-handed slugger Jimmie Foxx would hit 217 home runs over the next six seasons, including 50 in 1938.

In 1947, the year light towers were installed in Fenway Park, the Red Sox elected to scrape the ads that had adorned the wall and painted it "Dartmouth green" to match the rest of the ballpark.

The Modern Wall

It is unclear when the term “Green Monster” first was used. For many years—through the 1980s—it was usually referred to as “The Wall.” In a 1958 story, Boston Globe reporter Hy Hurwitz referred to the “easy to reach green monster in Ted Williams’ territory,” and a UPI story on August 24, 1960 referred to a double off Fenway Park’s “Green Monster.” Red Sox reliever John Wyatt in 1966 referred to the “jolly green monster” in left, and during the 1967 World Series frequent references were made to the Green Monster.

After the 1975 season, the original tin facing of the Green Monster was stripped off.

The left-field foul pole is known as the “Fisk Pole,” in honor of the game-winning, 12th-inning home run hit off the pole by Hall of Fame catcher Carlton Fisk in Game 6 of the 1975 World Series against Cincinnati on October 21, 1975. The home run came off Reds pitcher Pat Darcy and broke a 6-6 tie.

After the 1975 season, the original tin facing of the wall was stripped off and cut into thousands of 2 ½ inch-by-4 ½ inch rectangles that were mounted on wooden plaques and sold to raise money for the Jimmy Fund, which supports research and care for pediatric and adult cancer at the Dana-Farber Cancer Institute. Installed in its place was a Formica-like material.

After the 2002 season, the team’s new ownership group, headed by John Henry and Tom Werner, decided to remove the screen atop the wall and replaced it with 269 barstool-type seats, which have quickly become among some of the most highly sought seats in the ballpark. Standing-room tickets are also available on the Monster.

Today, seats atop the Green Monster are some of the most coveted in all of baseball.

The Statues

Some of the greatest Red Sox players are immortalized outside Fenway Park's Gate B on Van Ness Street.

TED WILLIAMS

The Red Sox honored Hall of Famer Ted Williams with the first statue in the ballpark's history, unveiled on April 16, 2004. An idea originally proposed by Mayor Thomas M. Menino after Williams' passing in 2002, the statue depicts the slugger, standing 8-feet, 6-inches tall, holding a bat and placing his cap on a child with cancer. The statue was moved a few feet down Van Ness St. in 2010, when the Teammates statue was installed.

CARL YASTRZEMSKI

Hall of Famer Carl Yastrzemski was on hand when a statue in his honor was dedicated on September 22, 2013. The statue captures a moment that took place on Sunday, October 2, 1983, when the lifelong Red Sox star tipped his helmet to fans at Fenway Park before the final at-bat of his 23-year career. Yaz retired that day having played the most games that any player had ever played to that point in the history of MLB (3,308).

TEAMMATES

On June 9, 2010, the Red Sox unveiled a statue dedicated to Bobby Doerr, Dom DiMaggio, Johnny Pesky, and Ted Williams. The statue recognizes the remarkable bonds of camaraderie that these four Red Sox legends enjoyed for over half a century, first as teammates, and then as lifelong friends, the story of which was immortalized in David Halberstam's memorable book, The Teammates – Portrait of a Friendship.

Beyond Baseball

Football

Fenway Park's first non-baseball sporting event took place on November 28, 1912, when Boston Latin defeated Boston English, 7-6, in Fenway's first high school football game. Football at the high school, collegiate, and professional levels remained a constant at the venue through 1968, then returned in 2015 after a 47-year hiatus when Notre Dame defeated Boston College in the Shamrock Series, 19-16. High school football at Fenway has become an annual November tradition, while the Fenway Bowl—a collegiate Bowl Game featuring teams from the AAC and ACC—made its debut in 2022 (Louisville vs. Cincinnati).

Hockey

The first hockey game at Fenway Park was played on January 1, 2010, when the Boston Bruins defeated the Philadelphia Flyers in overtime, 2-1, in the NHL's Winter Classic. That event paved the way for the inaugural "Frozen Fenway" event in 2010, featuring several men's and women's high school and collegiate games in January. The NHL's Winter Classic returned in January 2023 when the Bruins faced off against the Pittsburgh Penguins, making Fenway the first venue to host the event multiple times.

Music

Fenway Park hosted the Newport Jazz Festival in July 1973, an event that featured Ray Charles and Stevie Wonder. Thirty years later, when Bruce Springsteen and the E Street Band entertained thousands of fans from the Fenway outfield, it began a new era of America's Most Beloved Ballpark hosting some of the biggest music acts in the world (see below).

Other Events

Fenway Park has hosted a number of other sporting events, including lacrosse, boxing, wrestling, and soccer. In recent years, Fenway Sports Group has found new and exciting ways to showcase the ballpark's multi-use possibilities, perhaps none more daring than the 2016 Polartec Big Air, a skiing and snowboarding competition that featured a 140-foot snow ramp that stood taller than the ballpark's light towers. Other events of the past 20 years have included the Irish sport of hurling, the Spartan Race, Red Bull Crashed Ice, and Topgolf. In recent years, Fenway Park has served as an early voting center and as a mass vaccination site.

RED SOX BASEBALL AT FENWAY

Following an April 9 exhibition victory over Harvard and a pair of rainouts, the Red Sox won the first official game at Fenway, beating the New York Highlanders (who'd later become the Yankees) 7-6 in 11 innings. Tris Speaker drove home the game winner in front of 27,000 fans. The Red Sox go on to win 105 regular season games and capture the World Series during their first season at Fenway Park.

4.26.1912

1B Hugh Bradley hit the first home run at Fenway and the first over the left field wall vs. Philadelphia. It was the second and last home run of his Major League career.

9.11.1918

The Red Sox clinched the 1918 World Series with a 2-1, Game Six victory over the Chicago Cubs. This was the last championship-clinching victory won by the Red Sox at Fenway Park until Game 6 of the 2013 Series.

6.12.1916

RHP George Foster threw the first no-hitter by a Red Sox pitcher at Fenway Park, leading the Red Sox to a 2-0 win over the New York Yankees. Fenway Park's first no-hitter was thrown by the Boston Braves' George Davis in a 7-0 victory over Philadelphia on September 9, 1914.

OTHER FENWAY EVENTS

11.28. 1912

Boston Latin defeated Boston English 7-6 in Fenway Park's first high school football game. Two days later, Oak Park (IL) High School beat Everett (MA) High School 32-12 in the National High School Championship Game. Over the next few decades, several high school football games were played at the park.

10.31.1914

Boston College and Norwich University competed in Fenway Park's first college football game with BC winning 28-6. The Eagles used the park as a frequent home venue through the 1950s.

5.23.1915

In memory of American military members killed in the Spanish-American War, a memorial service was held at Fenway Park with 15,000 in attendance. A memorial service was regularly held at the park over the next few decades.

FENWAY PARK CONSTRUCTION

6.24.1911

Representing his family, John Taylor announced their intention to build Fenway Park. Prior to the 1912 season, the Red Sox played their home games at the Huntington Avenue Grounds, now part of the campus of Northeastern University.

FENWAY PARK 1912

9.24.1911

The groundbreaking occurred for the new ballpark.

5.8.1926

In the first Fenway Park fire, the bleachers along the left-field foul line burned down and were not replaced, giving fielders the chance to snare foul flies behind the third base grandstand.

1918

7.3.1932

The Sox were hammered by the Yankees 13-2 in the first Sunday game at Fenway Park. Sunday baseball was approved in Boston three years earlier, but not at Fenway due to its proximity to a church. The Sox played their Sunday games at Braves Field on Commonwealth Avenue until the law was changed. They actually played the first Boston Sunday game, a 7-3 loss to Philadelphia, at Braves Field, April 28, 1929 in front of 22,000 fans.

TED WILLIAMS

11.14.1925

Boston University played its first football game at Fenway Park, a 14-6 victory over Providence College. BU played occasional home games at Fenway Park through the mid-20th century.

1.5.1934

A five-alarm, four-hour blaze, the second Fenway Park fire, virtually destroyed the construction underway by new owner Thomas A. Yawkey to refurbish the park. Following the fire, construction began on a new left-field grandstand, the bleachers, and the new left field wall.

9.22.1935

The largest crowd to ever see a game at Fenway Park – 47,627 – turned out for a double-header with the Yankees. Crowds of this size will never be equaled under Fenway Park's current dimensions. More stringent fire laws and league rules after World War II prohibited overcrowding that was permitted in the 1930's.

1936

A 23-foot tall screen was installed above the left field wall. The screen would remain until the Green Monster Seats were constructed in 2003.

1940

Bullpens were constructed in front of the bleachers replacing the old bullpen areas in the outfield foul territory beyond the dugouts. Tom Yawkey replaced the right field pavilion section he built in 1934 with an extension of the grandstand, reducing the distance to the right field foul pole to 302 feet.

7.9.1946

The Red Sox hosted their first All-Star Game at Fenway Park, a 12-0 American League win. Eight Red Sox were on the All-Star team, but Ted Williams stole the show, going 4-for-4 with two homers, a walk, five RBI and four runs scored.

7.31.1961

Fenway Park was the site of the second All-Star Game played in 1961. The game ended in a 1-1 tie, called after nine innings and a 30-minute rain delay.

10.4.1948

The first playoff game in AL history took place at Fenway, and Cleveland rookie left-hander Gene Bearden beat the Red Sox 8-3. Shortstop-Manager Lou Boudreau led the Indians with two homers and two singles. The defeat prevented the only cross-town World Series in Boston history. Cleveland went on to beat the Boston Braves 4-2 in the World Series.

OTHER FENWAY EVENTS

11.4.1944

Just three days before being elected to an unprecedented fourth term in the Oval Office, President Franklin D. Starting in 1976, National League scores were shown only on the new message board. They returned to the left field scoreboard in 2003.

6.13.1947

The Red Sox tied the game at 6-6 in the last of the eighth on Bernie Carbo's three-run, pinch-hit homer with two outs, taking the win with Carlton Fisk's oft-replayed home run off Pat Darcy leading off the last of the 12th.

10.1.1967

On the final day of the regular season, the "Impossible Dream" Red Sox clinched the American League pennant with a 5-3 victory over Minnesota. The Red Sox would fall in seven games to the St. Louis Cardinals in the World Series.

After finishing the season with identical records, the Red Sox and New York Yankees played the second playoff game of its kind in American League history at Fenway Park. 4.29.1986

RHP Roger Clemens struck out a Major League, single-game record 20 batters in a 3-1 victory over the Seattle Mariners. Clemens earned AL MVP and Cy Young honors, leading the Red Sox to the 1986 World Series where they lost to the New York Mets in seven games.

7.13.1999

The defending champions received their World Series rings prior to the home opener against the Yankees. Led by Johnny Pesky and Carl Yastrzemski, former players who had longed for such a day helped the active players raise the World Championship flag. James Taylor sang "America the Beautiful," the Boston Symphony and Boston Pops played "The Star-Spangled Banner," and wounded soldiers back from war presented the rings. Boston icons Bobby Orr, Bill Russell, Teddy Bruschi and Richard Seymour threw the Ceremonial First Pitches. And, in fitting style, the Red Sox beat the Yankees.

10.30.2013

Boston's 6-1 win over St. Louis in Game 6 secured the franchise's eighth World Series title, and third in ten years. It was the Red Sox' first clinching World Series win at Fenway Park since the 1918 team won it all 95 years prior.

4.20.2013

In an emotional day at Fenway Park and throughout the City of Boston, the Red Sox played their first home game following the tragic events at the Boston Marathon five days earlier. An emotional David Ortiz proclaimed during pre-game ceremonies that "This is our...city," and Daniel Nava hit a go-ahead homer in the bottom of the eighth inning, leading the Red Sox to a 4-3 victory over the Royals.

10.10.2016

Boston's season ended with a 4-3 loss to Cleveland in the ALDS, but the largest postseason crowd in Fenway's history (39,530) stayed long after the final out to give David Ortiz a proper sendoff in his final game as a player.

9.30.2018

The Red Sox closed out their 2018 regular season with a 10-2 win over the Yankees. Boston's 108 wins were 3 more than the previous franchise best, established 106 years prior in 1912 (105).

OCTOBER 10-11, 2021

One day after defeating the Rays in Game 3 of the ALDS on a 13th-inning walk-off home run from Christian Vázquez, the Red Sox punched their ticket to the ALCS with another walk-off victory in Game 4, this time on a sacrifice fly from Kiké Hernández in front of an electric Fenway crowd. Boston became only the 2nd team ever to clinch a Post-season series with back-to-back walk-off wins, joining the 1991 Twins.

SHAMROCK SERIES

FALL 2015

Fenway Park donned football goalposts for the first time since 1968, playing host to the Shamrock Series, a 19-16 Notre Dame win over Boston College, as well as Thanksgiving high school games. The same week, Galway defeated Dublin in the first hurling match at Fenway since 1954.

9.1-2.2017

Lady Gaga made her Fenway Park debut as part of her Joanne World Tour, becoming the first female to headline a concert at the venue.

WINTER 2020-21

After more than 4,500 people voted early at Fenway Park from Oct. 17-18, 2020, the ball park opened as Boston's first mass vaccination site on 2/1/21.

BIG AIR AT FENWAY

2.11-12.2016

An incredible 140-foot snow ramp, taller than the light towers, stood as the centerpiece of "Big Air at Fenway," a two-day snowboarding and freeskiering event.

12.17.2022

Scheduled to debut in 2020 but delayed twice due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the 2022 Wasabi Fenway Bowl was the culmination of years of preparation and hard work to bring a collegiate bowl game to 4 Jersey Street. The University of Louisville defeated the University of Cincinnati, 24-7.

2023

The Red Sox made several new improvements for the 2017 season, including the addition of two rows of dugout seats, a new video board on the right-field roof deck, the restoration of Pesky Pole, and a removable bullpen wall that allows Fenway to better adapt to non-baseball events.

JIM BEAM DUGOUT

2016

The Aura Pavilion (formerly State Street) level was extended to accommodate 265 new seats in the Right Field Pavilion Reserved and Left Field Pavilion Reserved sections.

2018

The Jim Beam Dugout, a new field-level group seating area situated beyond the Red Sox dugout on the first base line, was built to give fans a view similar to the players by recreating the dugout experience with bats, helmets, and even a giant Gatorade cooler. As part of a new partnership with Samuel Adams, the Official Beer of the Boston Red Sox, the Right Field Roof Deck was refreshed and rebranded as the "Sam Deck."

2022

The Truly Terrace, an 8,800-square foot open air concourse space including a NESN Studio for pre-and post-game shows, was unveiled at the back of the Bleachers. The 521 Overlook also opened, 7,600-square-foot event space located directly above the Truly Terrace that offers sweeping views of Fenway Park and is designed to accommodate a variety of functions. A new, expanded video board that stands approximately 62 feet wide and 16 feet tall was added directly above the 521 Overlook, as well as two new LED boards installed along the fascia between the Truly Terrace and 521 Overlook that each run nearly 50 feet long.

2016

JetBlue Park at Fenway South

Sitting within the Fenway South Spring Training and player development complex, JetBlue Park features the same seating bowl geometry and playing field dimensions as Fenway Park in Boston. The ballpark, which opened in 2012, has a total capacity of roughly 11,000 (including standing room and reserved lawn seating), and takes many of its defining characteristics from "America's Most Beloved Ballpark."

One such characteristic is a near replica of the iconic Fenway Park Green Monster wall. The JetBlue Park wall features the similar dimensions and signature paint color of its counterpart up north, but is unique with its 2-level seating area both on top and inside the wall under cover. The wall also features a restored manual scoreboard that served Red Sox fans for almost 3 decades at Fenway Park in Boston starting in 1976. The ballpark also features:

- Close to 60,000 square feet of rolling canopy shading for the majority of seats, just about 1 ½ acres
- Approximately 9,900 fixed seats
- 8 private suites
- 378 Green Monster Wall seats on 2 separate levels
- A 50,000-square-foot Clubhouse
- A 2,400-square-foot Team Store
- 5 permanent concession stands and numerous portable carts located throughout the concourse

A street festival environment is recreated on Fenway South Drive. Much like at Fenway Park, the street features specialty concession stands and entertainment, including face painting, magicians, stilt walkers, and other games for children.

While the interior of JetBlue Park pays homage to Fenway Park in Boston, the exterior of the ballpark takes cues from its natural Southwest Florida surroundings. The undulating shade canopy with its canted columns was inspired by the Cypress tree domes that surround the site. In addition to providing shade to the majority of the seating bowl, the canopy serves as one of the LEED certified ballpark's most striking architectural features. Locally manufactured masonry blocks used on parts of the exterior wall feature crushed Florida sea shells from Sanibel beaches. The light colors of the exterior enhance and contrast the deep shadows cast by the bright Florida sun.

Longest Known Home Runs at Fenway Park

On June 9, 1946, Ted Williams hit a 502-foot home run to right off Detroit RHP Fred Hutchinson, the longest home run ever measured at Fenway Park (see "The Red Seat" on page 293 for more information).

In the Statcast Era (2015-present), the longest estimated home runs was hit by Minnesota's Miguel Sanó on August 25, 2021 (495 feet) and Boston's longest was hit by Hanley Ramirez on April 29, 2017 (469 feet).

On June 19, 1977, Carl Yastrzemski hit the longest known home run to the right of the bleachers, an 8th-inning bomb off Yankees RHP Dick Tidrow. It reached approximately 460 feet before striking the facing of the right-field roof about 20 feet to the right of where the retired No. 42 now appears. It is the only ball to reach the right-field roof façade.

On September 21, 1956, Mickey Mantle of the Yankees, batting left-handed, hit the longest known homer to straight-away center field off RHP Frank Sullivan. It carried approximately 480 feet before it struck one foot below the top of the brick barrier located behind Section 36.

Six home runs were hit over the old center field wall to the right of the flag pole. The elevation over the old brick wall was installed prior to the 1976 season and was removed prior to the 2003 season. Those six home runs were hit by Hank Greenberg (5/22/37 at BOS), Jimmie Foxx (8/12/37 vs. NYY-G1), Bill Skowron (4/20/57 at BOS), Carl Yastrzemski (5/16/70 vs. CLE), Bobby Mitchell (9/29/73 at BOS), and Jim Rice (7/18/75 vs. KC).

POSTSEASON

Red Sox in the Postseason

The Red Sox have won 4 of the last 22 World Series titles (2004, 2007, 2013, 2018), Major League Baseball's most since 2000. The Sox' 9 World Series titles are tied with the Athletics and Dodgers for 3rd all-time behind the Yankees (27) and Cardinals (11).

The Red Sox are 109-93-1 all-time in postseason play, having advanced to the postseason 26 times in 125 American League seasons (1901-2025). Boston is 24-17 in 41 postseason series, having gone 8-6 in 14 trips to the AL Division Series (26-26 in Division Series play), 6-6 in 12 trips to the AL Championship Series (32-36 in Championship Series play), and 9-4 in 13 trips to the World Series (49-29-1 in World Series games). Each of the Red Sox' 4 series losses in the Fall Classic was a 7-game set (1946, '67, '75, '86).

The Boston Americans, who became the Red Sox in 1908, won the 1st World Series ever held (1903), 1 of only 4 best-of-9 Series to be played (again in 1919-21). By beating the Pittsburgh Pirates of the more established National League, they caused such an embarrassment that the NL refused to participate the following year when the Red Sox repeated as AL Champions.

Boston set a Major League record with an 8-game winning streak to close out its run to the World Championship in 2004 (matched in 2005 by the Chicago White Sox, who won their final 8 games en route to the Championship). The Red Sox also had a 7-game winning streak starting from Game 5 of the 2007 ALCS through their World Series win in 2007.

The Red Sox are 58-39-1 in postseason home games, including 51-37-1 at Fenway Park. They also hosted World Series games at the Huntington Avenue Grounds in 1903 and at Braves Field in 1915 and 1916. The Sox clinched World Series titles at home in 1903 at the Huntington Avenue Grounds, in 1912 during Fenway Park's inaugural season, in 1916 at Braves Field, and in 1918 and 2013 at Fenway Park.

Bold=Active. Corrections have been made in the above listing thanks to information provided to us from John K. Moynahan, author of 50 Years At The Game, A Sports Traveler's Journey, and other sources. We appreciate this input as we attempt to produce an accurate account of our broadcasters. We are aware that through the years there have been "guest" or temporary fill-in broadcasters for Red Sox games, however, they are too numerous to list here.

Red Sox on NESN

NESN (New England Sports Network), the official home of the Boston Red Sox, is in its 43rd year of carrying Red Sox baseball. Consistently one of the top-rated regional sports networks in the country, NESN's Red Sox coverage includes an hour-long show before and after every game. Fans in New England can also watch NESN's coverage on the NESN 360 app, plus follow along on NESN.com and NESN social media channels for game-day coverage and news (X and Instagram: @NESN).

Veteran play-by-play announcer Dave O'Brien enters his 11th season with NESN, his 36th in Major League Baseball broadcasting (see box below). He will be joined by former Red Sox player Lou Merloni, as well as former Red Sox players and World Series champions Will Middlebrooks and Kevin Millar. Cohasset, MA native Mike Monaco will join the NESN broadcast team as play-by-play announcer for select games. Jahmai Webster will serve as a Red Sox sideline reporter for his ninth season.

Tom Caron is in his 23rd year as host of NESN's pre- and post-game show. He will be joined by an All-Star lineup of studio analysts that includes National Baseball Hall of Famer Jim Rice and former Red Sox players including Lenny DiNardo and Jonathan Papelbon. Adam Pellerin will also serve as a host for select pre- and post-game shows, and has filled a number of different roles at NESN since 2012.

Red Sox Radio Network

The Red Sox Radio Network carries every game, with WEEI 93.7 FM as its flagship station in Boston. A network of over 30 stations broadcasts Boston's games throughout the New England area.

Will Flemming, Will Middlebrooks, and Lenny Dinardo will be the WEEI Red Sox Radio Network's primary voices in 2026 and will be joined by Sean McDonough, Mike Monaco, and Rob Bradford. The pre- and post-game show will be hosted by Christian Arcand, Cooper Boardman, and Joe Weil.

Flemming returns for his eighth season in the Red Sox radio booth (2019-26). In addition to his work with WEEI, he has also been a play-by-play broadcaster for MLB and college basketball games on ESPN, filled in on Red Sox TV coverage on NESN, called college basketball games for CBS Sports, and worked NCAA Championship events for Turner Sports.

McDonough, a nationally renowned and Emmy Award-winning broadcaster with ESPN, is back for his eighth season with WEEI (2019-26). The Hingham, MA native served as the television play-by-play announcer for the Red Sox from 1988-2004.

Red Sox Spanish Radio Network

2026 marks the 36th season of the Red Sox Spanish-language broadcast. Every game of the regular season will be broadcast on WCCM 1490 AM (Haverhill). Nilson "Junior" Pepén will call the action—along with others—for the 2026 season. Pepén returns for his eighth season as the day-to-day Spanish broadcaster. He was also a part of the Red Sox Spanish-language broadcast team from 2006-10.

DAVE O'BRIEN! DAVE O'BRIEN! DAVE O'BRIEN!

2026 marks Dave O'Brien's 40th year in sports broadcasting and 20th calling Red Sox baseball between NESN and the Red Sox Radio Network, also serving previously as the voice of the Atlanta Braves, Florida Marlins, and New York Mets. Forever recognized in Boston for his iconic call of David Ortiz's game-tying grand slam in Game 2 of the 2013 ALCS ("David Ortiz! David Ortiz! David Ortiz!"), he has called 9 no-hitters and 8 World Series, as well as Barry Bonds' 756th career home run in 2007 to break MLB's all-time home run record.

Calling over 6,000 games across sports during his career, O'Brien has voiced college basketball and football on ESPN since 2000, as well as soccer. "OB" has served as the courtside voice for the 2006 FIBA World Cup in Berlin and 7 NCAA Women's Final Fours. In the 2017 Women's Final Four, he called of one of the greatest upsets ever as Mississippi State's overtime buzzer beater ended the University of Connecticut's 111-game winning streak.

2025 MASSACHUSETTS CO-SPORTSCASTERS OF THE YEAR

The National Sports Media Association (NSMA) named NESN's Tom Caron and Dave O'Brien as 2025 Massachusetts Co-Sportscasters of the Year.
